ABSTRACT

Abstract should be written with 10 font size, Times New Roman, single line spacing. Summarize in this section objective, method and findings.

Keywords: This section should contain maximum 5 words separated by commas.

GENERAL GUIDELINES

The article must contain the following sections: abstract and keywords, introduction, methodology, findings, conclusion, and references. Section can be named differently and subsections can be included.

The article shall be written in font Time New Roman, single line spacing and 11 font size. The article should not exceed 10 pages including references. Article can contain figures, tables and/or images. Page format should be A4 page size with margins 2.5 cm wide from the right, left, top and bottom. Pages should not be numbered. Supporting figures, tables and images of the results may be included in the article.

All the tables, images and figures should be centered. Figures and images should be numbered (see Figure 2 for an example) and figure headers should be placed under the figure or image; as for the tables, they should also be numbered (see Table 2 for an example) and the table header should be placed at the top. References (if any) of the tables, figures and images should be presented right under the tables, figures and images.

INTRODUCTION (Times New Roman, 12 font size, bold, all caps)

The introduction section should present the scope and objective of the paper and state the problem, describe the methods, and provide an overview of the main results of the work. Subsections can be added as necessary.

LITERATURE REVIEW

Briefly review the pertinent literature.

METHODOLOGY

The methodology must be clearly stated and described in sufficient detail or with sufficient references. The author shall explain the research question, describe the research framework, and the methods applied in detail. It should be furthermore highlighted why the research question is relevant to theory and practice, and why the chosen method(s) are suited for the problem.

FINDINGS

The arguments and findings are sufficiently described in this section.

CONCLUSIONS

Conclusions should include (1) the principles and generalizations inferred from the results, (2) any exceptions, problems or limitations of the work, (3) theoretical and/or practical implications of the work, and (4) conclusions drawn and recommendations.

REFERENCES

References should be listed in alphabetical order and presented in a format according to the APA style.
